MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be postponed for the present until we can find out something about it.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I think there is quite a little misunderstanding about this bill increasing the hunter's license from a dollar and twenty-five cents to two dollars. There has been very little said about it on the floor of this House. I want to say to you that the sportsmen all over the state have endorsed the increase of these rates. The increase is earmarked so that the Game Commission cannot spend any portion of this increase for any other purpose than the propagation of game and for the purchase of waste lands to stock with game and make public hunting grounds for the rich as well as the poor. A number of rich men have been buying up this waste land and posting it so that the poor man not belonging to that exclusive club cannot hunt on it. The time is not very far distant when if we don't take some action to give the people some free hunting grounds we are not going to have any. I ask you to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2086, (Senate Bill No. 558), entitled:

An Act providing for the rebuilding of county bridges over four hundred feet in length on improved State highway routes in counties of the sixth seventh and eighth classes by the Department of Highways at the expense of the Commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, I desire to get some information on this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that this is a Senate bill. Is there any member of the House that is willing to be interrogated concerning this bill?

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill which I believe has met with approval all the way along the line of rebuilding bridges that are over four hundred feet in length on the main arteries of the highway system across rivers.

Mr. HANTZ. If it is in order, I would like to know whether counties that are in the sixth, seventh and eighth classes are discriminated against in the building of bridges. I never could understand why a bill of this sort should not be uniform all over the state. I don't happen to be in a county of the sixth, seventh or eighth class but I don't see why they should be discriminated against in the building of bridges that might come under the regulation of this bill.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I can possibly enlighten the gentleman from York. For some time past there has been quite a sentiment in favor of the State Highway Department taking over the maintenance of all bridges on state highway routes. This is the beginning and a beginning to assist the weaker counties, the counties that are the least able to carry the burden financially. So it is a beginning or an opening wedge for the state to take over the maintenance of these bridges.

Mr. HANTZ. Mr. Speaker, then from what my friend from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, has said, would it not be proper to consider the larger counties which pay so much more toward the support of the Commonwealth than the weaker counties do? Are they not, therefore, entitled to just as much consideration as the weaker ones are? I say that I can see no reason why we in the larger counties should be discriminated against. I think it is very unfair to have such legislation put through.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HESS. I will with pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Hess, is there anything in this bill to provide for more bridges in Philadelphia?

Mr. HESS. No sir, they are not of the seventh or eighth class counties.

Mr. SOWERS. Will the gentleman from Lancaster explain to the House if there will ever be a chance to get something done in Philadelphia?

Mr. HESS. Without a doubt. There was something done a few days ago.

Mr. SOWERS. When do you think it will come through?

Mr. HESS. It has already come through in the amendment to No. 630 when the appropriation was raised from two hundred thousand to five hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I must thank the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, for giving Philadelphia a little advance.

BILL PASSED OVER.

Mr. EACHES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill be passed over for the time being.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SOWERS. One of the things I least expected has happened. The pocketbook of the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, has at last opened, and like the Scotch Covenanter, when he opened his pocketbook a moth flew out.

Mr. KAHLE. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlmen of the House, that is not a moth, it is the dove of peace.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. McBRIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 644, file folio 8579, on page 2 of the Calendar of April 12th, bills on final passage, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred nine) entitled "An act regulating the publication of advertisements and notices required by law to be published in counties of this Commonwealth in newspapers published in the English language and newspapers published in the German language" as amended was defeated on final passage, be reconsidered.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The Speaker declared, the "ayes" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and sixty-six members having voted in the affirmative and sixty-five in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am going to make my remarks as brief as possible. I realize the House is not in the mood or humor to listen to remarks or speeches, and I am not going to inflict them on you. I am trying to convey the thought on this bill, which passed the House and passed the Senate, and at the suggestion of the Attorney General's office, the word "and" was stricken out, and the word "or" was substituted in place thereof. This is the act of 1915 in relation to the publication of advertisements in foreign newspapers. This bill merely amends the act of 1915 to include weekly periodicals as well as daily newspapers. This is not the bill that many of you are under the impression it is; the so-called "German" bill is now in committee. This is only an amendment of the act of 1915 and I ask the members of the House to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1110, (House Bill No. 915), on third reading, entitled:

An Act regulating the practice of the profession of engineering in all of its branches including surveying providing for the registration of persons practicing or offering to practice said profession conferring certain powers and imposing certain duties upon the State registration board for professional engineers upon the clerks of political sub-divisions of the Commonwealth and upon the court of common pleas of Dauphin County and providing penalties be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Joyce.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Joyce, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I would like to inquire the purpose of recommitting this bill at this time.

Mr. JOYCE. Mr. President, for amendment.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, this bill has been in the hands of a special committee and has been amended, I think, to suit all interests. We worked on this bill for nearly a week, and finally, in conference with the Governor and all those interested in this bill, it was reported out in its present shape, and we understand it is satisfactory to everybody interested. I hope the Senator will not recommit this bill, for that would mean its end at this session.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, this bill was referred to a sub-committee of the Committee on Judiciary General to fix up certain amendments. I understand the sub-committee was two to one, one man on the committee being an engineer, and the amendments were not satisfactory. That is the reason we would like to have this bill recommitted.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, "What is the purpose of recommitting this bill; and what is wrong with it?"

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, the purpose of recommitting this bill is to defeat it.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, do you think that we need some prisoners to work upon the highways,—that they themselves may get some exercise; and, as somebody will be paid for this work, that the prisoners be paid for the work they do, and that the money they earn may go to their families for their support?

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would rather see these prisoners work on the farms than on the highways.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, there is great demand in our part of the State for work on the highways; and the warden of the jail believes that prisoners should be employed in some useful occupation, and be enabled to earn money that can be used for the support of their families; and this can be done better by work on the highways than by other kinds of work. I object to putting this bill back into committee unless voted down.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, will the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Wavis, not agree to having this bill go go over in its order.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I will agree to anything, and withdraw the motion to recommit the bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my second.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1576, (House Bill No. 948), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-one of the act approved the fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and nine) entitled "An act relating to county rates and levies and township rates and levies" permitting the filing of tax liens and the return of property for non-payment of taxes without the necessity of levying on and selling personal goods and chattels be recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I wish to ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, the reason for his motion to recommit this bill; is it to kill the bill?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I do not understand the term "kill".

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, in other words, to bury it?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, mean to give it a "decent interment"?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, to give it a "decent interment" or otherwise?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, what is the purpose?

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, the purpose is this: Under the law, as I understand, a tax collector is bound to levy on personal property for taxes; and if this bill should be enacted into law, as I understand the phraseology, that very pleasant duty is dispensed with, and he can make a return of the taxes without making any effort to collect the taxes from personal property which may be upon the premises. If that is correct, I am against the bill; and therefore I move to recommit it to the Committee on Finance. If I am wrong about it, I shall be very glad to reconsider and withdraw gracefully.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, that is a bill of a representative from Allegheny County, and I will ask if the Senator from Delaware, Mr. MacDade, will allow it to go over.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I will with the consent of the seconder I withdraw the motion.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I will agree.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL.

Mr. HEATON. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1589, (House Bill No. 1134), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section eight of the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred thirty-one) entitled "An act providing for the appointment of a board of examiners to examine applicants for the office of inspector for the anthracite mines of this Commonwealth prescribing the qualifications defining the powers and duties and fixing the compensation of such examiners providing for the appointment and removal of inspectors of anthracite mines prescribing their qualifications and regulating their salaries and terms of office and abolishing the terms of offices of the present mine inspectors of the anthracite mines" by providing that anthracite mine inspectors need not reside in the district for which appointed.

be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I think there must be a misapprehension about this bill. I desire to interrogate the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Heaton.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Heaton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEATON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I wish to inquire of the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Heaton, his reason for having the bill recommitted.

Mr. HEATON. Mr. President, the bill all the way through, permits the mine inspectors to reside in other districts than the districts for which they are appointed.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, in what way is it wrong?

Mr HEATON. Mr. President, it affects all anthractie mines of the Commonwealth.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, does the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Heaton, know that that is the only purpose of the bill?

Mr. HEATON. Mr. President, I think they ought to live where their district is. We cannot afford to have men living in Juniata County coming over to Schuylkill County to work.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, the only purpose of this bill is to change the present statute in that part in which it requires the residence of the mine inspector in the particular district in which he serves.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I rise to a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis, will state his point of information.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, is there anything before the Senate now to discuss on this bill?

The PRESIDENT. There is not. The question is on the recommitting of the bill. As to the merits of the bill itself, any discussion is out of order.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, my object in speaking is to argue against the recommitting of this bill because of the fact that it is, I think, a meritorious bill, and I think the objection to it, if it is understood, will be readily cleared away.

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I do not want to interfere in this matter at all, but it seems to me that if the bill is not very objectionable the makers of the motion to recommit it might let it go over temporarily, so that the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, may talk to those making and seconding the motion and thereby come to an understanding; and then the bill can be either recommitted or acted upon otherwise.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, aside from the fact that the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, thinks this is a good bill, does he have any interest in it?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, none except that Senator Walsh spoke to me yesterday about the bill and called my attention to the nature of it, and asked me to look after it to that extent. That is my interest in it.

Mr. HEATON. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion, and ask that the bill go over.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I consent, as the seconder of the motion to recommit, to the bill's going over in its order.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1589, (House Bill No. 1134), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section eight of the act approved the seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 831) entitled "An act providing for the appointment of a board of examiners to examine applicants for the office of inspector for the anthracite mines of this Commonwealth prescribing the qualifications defining the powers and duties and fixing the compensation of such examiners providing for the appointment and removal of inspectors of anthracite mines prescribing their qualifications and regulating their salaries and terms of office and abolishing the terms of offices of the present mine inspectors of the anthracite mines by providing that anthracite mine inspectors need not reside in the district for which appointed

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1590, (House Bill No. 1884), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the thirteenth day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and forty), entitled "An act to provide revenue by levying a tax upon the shares of stock of companies incorporated under the provisions of section twenty-nine of an act, entitled 'An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations,' approved April twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and the supplements thereto; for the insurance of owners of real estate, mortgages, and others interested in real estate, from loss by reason of defective titles liens and encumbrances; and of companies entitled to the benefits of and of companies having any of the powers and companies entitled to the benefits of an act, entitled 'An act conferring upon certain fidelity, insurance, safety deposit, trust and savings companies the powers and privileges of companies incorporated under the provisions of section twenty-nine of an act, entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" approved April twenty-ninth Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and of the supplements thereto,' approved June twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, commonly known as title insurance or trust companies," as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I do not know all about this bill, but I do know that the marine insurance business in this country has been working with very much of a prejudice against our marine insurance companies; and this bill provides merely for changing the method of taxing them,—from a tax on their gross receipts to a tax on their net profits. The law as it exists today, I am informed, is the same kind of a law as the one they have abandoned in New York State. If we want our marine insurance business to be done in foreign countries,—because of this discrimination against it here, why, then we should continue the law as it is.

Now, it is true that in the beginning we might lose some little revenue, but the presumption is that after the business has worked up to what it should be the benefit will come from this Act, that we will be doing our share of the marine insurance business. Therefore, for the benefit of this business in this country I think the bill should be passed.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. BONBRAKE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1607, (House Bill No. 1860), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 479) entitled "An act imposing a State tax on anthracite coal providing for the assessment and collection thereof and providing penalties for the violation of this act" fixing the time when taxation of anthracite coal shall cease and the rate of said tax be recommitted to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I understand that the request to recommit this bill is merely a matter of form. This is a bill to repeal the anthracite tax. We will all agree it is an unjust tax. But it does not repeal the tax for the first two years. After the first two years it makes the tax on anthracite coal one per cent. Two years later, and for a period of six years, it repeals the tax entirely. So the State will not lose any revenue for the next two years.

Now it has come to the point that if the State of Pennsylvania is going to insist on taxing anthracite coal it is time to tax everything in Pennsylvania—coal, oils, timber and everything else. I would ask the Senate to give us a chance this morning to vote on this bill. It takes nothing away from the revenue for the next two years. The following two years it takes one-half of one per cent away from the revenue of the Commonwealth; and I ask the Senate to vote the motion to recommit down, in order to give us an opportunity to vote on this bill one way or the other.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Davis and Mr. Heaton and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30.

Section 30 Directions to Voters On the councilmanic ballots the following directions to voters shall be substituted for those prescribed for municipal elections by general law

Directions to Voters

Put the figure 1 in the square opposite the name of your first choice You may also express second third and other choices by putting the figure 2 opposite the name of your second choice the figure 3 opposite the name of your third choice and so on You may express thus as many choices as you please without any regard to the number being elected

Your ballot will be counted for your first choice if it can help elect him If it cannot help elect him it will be transferred to the highest of your other choices whom it can help

You cannot hurt the chances of any candidate you prefer by marking lower choices for others The more choices you express the surer you are to make your ballot count for one of them But do not feel obliged to express more choices than you really have

Do not put the same figure opposite more than one name

If you spoil this ballot return it to the election officer in charge of the ballots and get another from him

Section 31 Form of Ballot Except as herein otherwise provided the ballot used for the election of councilmen shall be in substantially the form prescribed by general law for municipal elections

Section 32 Preparation for Elections Previous to every election of the council the court of common pleas one (1) shall designate a central counting place for the whole city where all councilmanic ballots shall be brought together and counted publicly two (2) shall employ a sufficient number of qualified assistants to count such ballots and three (3) shall make all other necessary arrangements for the counting of such ballots

Section 33 Assembling the Ballots From the Election Districts When the polls are closed and before the ballot box is opened the election officers in each election district shall announce and record on the outside of a councilmanic return envelope to be furnished them by the county commissioners the number of councilmanic ballots issued to voters as shown by the ballot stubs and the number of such ballots spoiled and returned by voters and cancelled Immediately after the ballot box is opened they shall sort out all of the councilmanic ballots from the other ballots used at the election and without making any tabulation of the votes cast or councilmen shall enclose them in said councilmanic return envelope and seal the same The spoiled cancelled ballots the unused ballots and the ballot stubs shall be replaced in the ballot box with the other ballots used at the election The judge of election shall deliver the said councilmanic return envelope containing the councilmanic ballots to the person authorized by the court of common pleas to receive the same at the central counting place in such manner and within such period of time as the court of common pleas shall direct

Section 34 Rules for Counting Ballots for the Election of Councilmen At such time as the court of common pleas shall direct but beginning not later than noon of the Friday next following the election the councilmanic ballots shall be counted under its supervision or under the supervision of a person or persons designated by it for the purpose in the central counting place designated by it for the entire city and according to the following rules

(One) The ballots in the councilmanic return envelope from each election district shall first be counted separately and their number recorded

(Two) The ballots shall then be sorted according to the first choices marked on them

(Three) As the ballots are sorted those received by each candidate shall be stamped or marked with serial numbers in the order in which they are received

(Four) If a ballot does not clearly show which candidate the voter prefers to all others or if it contains any word mark or other sign apparently intended to identify the voter it shall be set aside as invalid Every ballot not thus invalid shall be counted according to the intent of the voter so far as that can be clearly ascertained whether marked according to the directions printed on it or not

(Five) If the consecutive numerical order of the figures on a ballot is broken by the omission of one or more figures the order of the figures on the ballot shall be taken as the voter's order of preference without regard to the figure or figures omitted

(Six) When all the ballots have been sorted according to first choices the number of valid ballots cast for each candidate as first choice and the total number of valid ballots shall be determined

(Seven) The total number of valid ballots shall then be divided by a number greater by one than the number of members to be elected The next whole number larger than the resulting quotient shall be the quota sufficient to elect a member

(Eight) All candidates whose first-choice ballots equal or exceed the quota in number shall be declared elected

(Nine) As many transferable ballots as each elected candidate has in excess of the quota shall then be transferred from him to other candidates first the surplus ballots of the candidate highest on the poll then the surplus ballots of the candidate next highest and so on

A "transferable" ballot is a ballot from which the next choice of the voter for some continuing candidate can be clearly ascertained A "continuing candidate" is a candidate as yet neither elected nor defeated

(Ten) The particular ballots of a candidate to be transferred as his surplus shall be those which have received certain serial numbers determined as follows

(a) The total number of ballots which the candidate has received (say for example 10,600) shall be divided by the number he has received above the quota (say 1,000) The quotient thus determined (10 in the example given) disregarding any remainder shall be used as the basis of selection as hereinafter provided

(b) The ballots taken for transfer shall be those which are transferable and whose serial numbers are the smallest exact multiples of the quotient (10 20 30 40 etc in the example)

(c) If there are not enough transferable ballots whose serial numbers are exact multiples of the quotient enough of the transferable ballots whose serial numbers are one less than the smallest exact multiples of the quotient (9 19 29 39 etc in the example) shall be taken also If there are not enough of these transferable ballots whose serial numbers are two less than the smallest exact multiples of the quotient (8 18 28 38 etc in the example) shall be taken also and so on until the entire surplus has been transferred

(d) If all the candidate's transferable ballots are taken for transfer without reducing his total to the quota all his remaining ballots shall be left to his credit

(Eleven) In the transfer of a surplus each ballot shall be transferred to the candidate indicated on it as next choice among the unelected candidates

(Twelve) After the transfer of all surpluses or if no candidate received a surplus after the count of first choices every candidate who has to his credit fewer ballots than the number of signatures required to nominate him shall be declared defeated provided however that if this provision would reduce the number of undefeated candidates below the number to be elected it shall not be applied

(Thirteen) All the ballots of the candidates thus defeated shall be transferred together each to the candidate indicated on it as next choice among the continuing candidates Any ballot which does not clearly indicate any candidate as next choice among the continuing candidates shall be set aside as exhausted

(Fourteen) After all the ballots if any of the candidates defeated under rule twelve have been transferred the one candidate who is then lowest on the poll shall be declared defeated and all his ballots transferred in the same way Thereupon the candidate who is then lowest shall be defeated and his ballots transferred Thus lowest candidates shall be declared defeated one after another all the ballots of each being transferred before any other candidate is defeated

(Fifteen) Whenever the total number of ballots credited to any candidate becomes equal to the quota he shall immediately be declared elected and no ballots in excess of the quota shall be transferred to him

(Sixteen) If when a candidate is to be declared defeated two or more candidates are tied at the bottom of the poll that one of the tied candidates shall be declared defeated who was credited with fewest ballots just before the last transfer of ballots If two or more of the tied candidates were tied at that stage of the count also the second tie shall be decided if necessary by referring similarly to the standing of the candidates just before the last transfer of ballots before that This principle shall be applied successively as many times as may be necessary a tie shown at any stage of the count being decided by referring to the standing of the tied candidates just before the last preceding transfer of ballots

(Seventeen) Any tie not otherwise provided for shall be decided by lot

(Eighteen) If at any time candidates to the number to be elected have received the quota any transfer of ballots in progress when the last quota was reached shall be completed but immediately thereafter all continuing candidates shall be declared defeated and the election shall be at an end

(Nineteen) If at any time all ballots of any defeated candidates have been transferred and it is impossible to defeat another candidate without reducing the continuing candidates below the number still to be elected all the continuing candidates shall be declared elected and the election shall be at an end

(Twenty) A record of the count shall be kept in such form as to show after each sorting or transfer of ballots the number thereby credited to each candidate the number thereby found exhausted the total for each candidate the total found exhausted and the total number of valid ballots found by adding the totals of all candidates and the total found exhausted

(Twenty-one) If the total number of valid ballots found after any transfer is not the same as the totals found previously the error shall be found and corrected before the count proceeds

(Twenty-two) Every ballot that is transferred from one candidate to another shall be stamped or marked so that its entire course from candidate to candidate can be conveniently traced

(Twenty-three) If in correcting an error any ballots are re-sorted or re-transferred every ballot shall be made to take the same course that it took in the original count unless the correction of an error requires its taking a different course These principles shall apply also to any recount except for the filling of a vacancy which may be made after the original count has been completed

Section 35 Recesses for Counting Staff The counting staff shall proceed with reasonable expedition in the counting of the councilmanic ballots but may take recesses or adjourn from day to day at the discretion of the court of common pleas or the person or persons delegated by it to take charge of the court The court of common pleas shall make proper provision for the safekeeping of the ballots while the counting is not in progress

Section 36 Supervision Every facility for witnessing the count that is consistent with good order shall be given to the public and to representatives of the public press Special facilities including the privilege of mingling with the counting staff and examining any of the ballots closely shall be given to any person who may be appointed in writing as their representative for the purpose by at least three of the candidates whose names are printed on the ballot and who have not shared in the appointment of any other person for the purpose

Section 37 Preservation of Ballots The ballots cast at each election of the council shall be preserved by the court of common pleas until the term of the members elected thereby has expired The ballots credited to each successful candidate at the end of the election shall be kept separate from the rest as the ballots which elected him

Section 38 Time of Taking Office The members of the council shall take office on the first Monday in January next following their election and shall serve until their successors are elected and take office

Section 39 Recount to Fill Vacancies If a vacancy occurs in the council it shall be certified to the court of common pleas by the secretary or clerk of the council and shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by a public recount under the supervision of the court of common pleas of the ballots by which it was filled at the last regular election of the council This recount shall be conducted according to the following rules

(One) All choices marked for members of the council or for candidates who have become ineligible have expressed to the court of common pleas in writing their desire to withdraw shall be disregarded

(Two) The ballots shall be sorted each to the highest choice marked on it for any of the eligible candidates

(Three) If any candidate has to his credit more than half of the ballots which show any preference among these candidates he shall be declared elected to the vacant place

(Four) If no candidate has to his credit more than half of the ballots which show such a preference every candidate who has no ballots to his credit shall be declared defeated

(Five) Thereupon the remaining lowest on the poll shall be declared defeated and all his ballots transferred each to the candidate indicated on it as next choice among the undefeated candidates

(Six) Thus lowest candidates shall be declared defeated one after another and all their ballots transferred until some candidate is credited with more than all the other undefeated candidates together

(Seven) As soon as one candidate is credited with more ballots than all the other undefeated candidates together he shall be declared elected to the vacant place

(Eight) Except as herein otherwise provided and except that the rules for assembling and checking the ballots and those regarding the quota and surplus ballots may be disregarded the recount shall be governed by the provisions for the original count

(Nine) If two or more vacancies occur at the same time they shall be filled separately in the order in which they are certified to the court of common pleas

Section 40 Vacancies for Which There are No Candidates If a vacancy occurs for which no regularly nominated candidates remain the council shall by a majority vote of the remaining members appoint a qualified person to fill it for the remainder of the unexpired term

ARTICLE IV

PROCEDURE FOR REPEAL

Section 41 Repeal by Popular Vote Any city which adopts the city manager plan of government with proportional representation may repeal it at any general or municipal election thereafter by the same procedure as that prescribed for its adoption The question printed on the ballot in such a case shall be "Shall the city manager plan of government with proportional representation be discontinued in the city of .....?"

Section 42 First Election After Repeal In case the city manager plan of government with proportional representation is repealed the next municipal election thereafter shall be conducted for the offices and according to the provisions which would be in effect if the city were at that election coming for the first time under the provisions of general law for cities of its class

Section 43 Termination of City Manager Plan The officers so elected shall take office on the first Monday in January following their election at which time the term of the city manager and of all other officers whose offices have been created under the provisions of this act shall terminate and thereafter the city shall be governed as provided by general law for cities of its class The council shall have power to provide for the transition by ordinance

We are saddened this morning because death has again passed its shadows over the homes of the members of this House. We pray Thee that all of these afflictions and all of the sadness may bring us together as men, as human beings, interested in the lives of each other, that we may have our sympathies broadened and the memories of our hearts made richer and fuller because our friends are passing through the deep waters. Guide us and bless us this day, We ask in Thy name. Amen.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1233.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1233 entitled "An act to further amend section three of an act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws two hundred and seventy-five) entitled 'An act to provide for the appointment of county and city inspectors of weights and measures providing for their compensation and expenses prescribing their duties prohibiting vendors from giving false or insufficient weights and fixing the penalties for the violation of the provisions hereof' as amended providing that prosecutions shall be instituted only on complaint of State and local inspectors of weights and measures except in certain instances."

The purpose of this bill is to impose restrictions upon the right of individuals to institute prosecutions for violations of the provisions of the Act of May 11, 1911, P. L. 275, which prohibits the giving of false or insufficient weights or measures and the use of fraudulent weighing devices.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1833, (Senate Bill No. 703), entitled:

An Act Creating a Housing Commission defining its powers and duties and making an appropriation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, this bill appoints a commission of the House. I do not think it amounts to anything even if they do make a report. I think the state of Pennsylvania would better appropriate this ten thousand dollars for other purposes that are needed.

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very frank to confess that I do not know the contents of this bill, but from the heading of the bill the subject matter pertains to housing conditions, and I presume carries an appropriation. I believe it is rather discourteous at this time in the session to drop a Senate bill from the calendar. I think after all it is a matter for the Governor to decide whether it is a good bill or a bad bill. I think it is very poor judgment on our part to go along on a proceeding of this kind. The bill naturally must have some merit if it passed the Senate and has come over to the House, and been advanced to the third reading calendar. In view of the fact that the purpose of the bill is to possibly solve a problem of real humanity and make a city a better place to live in, I consider this legislation to be wholesome and constructive, and I would ask you to vote down the motion to drop it from the calendar, and give this bill a fair chance and let the members of this House vote on it.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny stated in his address that he does not know anything about this bill and that it is a matter for the Governor. I think if that is the case we might just as well drop all our bills and let the Governor decide it. Each city on the state of Pennsylvania has rules for building houses, or building anything, and I think this bill is absolutely worthless and of no account.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2144, (Senate Bill No. 1092), entitled:

An Act defining and regulating the practice of Chiropody establishing a State Board of Chiropody Examiners in the Department of Public Instruction prescribing its powers and duties and fixing the compensation of the members thereof and providing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, with reference to giving Chiropodity a board at this time, I would like to say that a resolution has been put into the Senate, and also conveyed over to the House for the purpose of having the Governor name a commission which will go into all these different professions with an idea of coming to some conclusion as to who is entitled to a board and who is not, and therefore, I would ask that the members vote "no" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call your attention to the bill upon which we are about to vote. The purpose of this bill is so apparent that no discussion of it is needed. All you need to do is to look at the bill and you can fathom the purpose. I, therefore, urge that the bill be voted down.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the bill before the House is a very meritorious act. It is an effort to do away with a lot of campaigns or campaign committees which are bogus, which are going around collecting money, simply on some high-sounding name, and any effort made in that direction to prevent people from masquarading under some false name is a good effort and should have our approval. I ask the members of the House to consider this bill. It was offered March 30 in the Senate, thoroughly considered by the Senate committee and by the Senate and has been passed by the Senate. It is an effort to make a man come out in the open and not hide behind an assumed name. I ask you to say that is a good practice.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

RESIGNATION OF HON. C. J. McBRIDE.

Mr. McBRIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following communication.

The SPEAKER. The communication will be read by the Clerk.

The Clerk read the communication as follows:

"Harrisburg, Pa., April 13, 1927.

Hon. Thomas Bluett,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I herewith resign as a member of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, for the Ninth District of Allegheny County, for the term of office beginning the first day of December, 1926, and ending November 30th, 1928.

Respectfully yours,
C. J. McBride."

RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I move the House accepts the resignation of Mr. McBride.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with a realization that time is most valuable to each and every one of us, without any attempt to prevent you from pursuing the work of the closing days of the session, I feel that you all agree with me in the thought that in losing the member from Allegheny County, the Chairman of our most valued committee, the Appropriations Committee, we lose one whom we all have learned to love, esteem and regard in terms of the highest affection.

His lovable character is known to each and every one of you who have had occasion in the course of the session of 1927 to present the problems of your respective constituencies. Knowing him as well as I do, his open frankness, his candor, his loyalty and his devotion to the service of the Commonwealth and to each and every member, I realize that his parting will cause the deepest regret, and the one consolation we have is that in his parting he is at least going to perform a higher duty for the citizens of Allegheny County. He will be honored by the judiciary of Allegheny County in a position of most sacred honor to the people there.

I know that you join with me in wishing that his future may be a brilliant one. I know it is the thought and wish of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McBride, to take this means of bidding you good-bye, with the hope that you will not forget him as he will never forget you. I know that you join with me in wishing him a brilliant future, and that the promotion he has now received will be only the beginning of many greater ones that the people of Allegheny County will have in store for him. I know that he will do equally as well in Allegheny County as he has done in the session of 1927. It is my hope, and I know it is your hope, that Providence will keep him for many years, and that he will be rewarded with your blessings, and that he will prosper.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House. I do not wish to take up any of your valuable time, but as one of the minority members of the Appropriation Committee, I want to say "Amen" to every sentiment and every thought that has been expressed by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus.

I too feel deeply the loss of the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. McBride, and I want to say to you that there is no member in this House that has a higher regard for the gentleman from Allegheny, and his work and the fair methods by which he has conducted his work than I. I, therefore, express, and I know I express the feelings of every minority on this side, when I say that we hearily say "Amen" to everything that has been said by the gentleman from Allegheny.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I always feel at a time like this, when a man has done his duty and performed the work which was given to him to do faithfully as our friend, Mr. McBride, that it is not doing too much to stand in your place and put on the record of this House the commendation of work well done.

I have been in close touch with Mr. McBride during all of this session, and I join with the other two members in saying that there never has been a more faithful servant of this Commonwealth, one who has performed his duties more faithfully, more conscientiously, or who has been more fair and honorable than Mr. McBride. He has treated everybody fairly. As I said on another occasion tonight, I never knew before that there was a man who did not get mad, but I believe that this is a man who cannot get mad. I have seen him on a number of occasions, and he has always been the same quiet, good-natured gentleman that he is. While I dislike to see him leave this legislature, because he is of importance and of great use to the Commonwealth, I feel that our loss is his gain. I am glad that he is going into a field that is of more importance and of more benefit to him. I know, and I assure him, that this House as a whole believes that no matter what the trust is, you will always find Charlie McBride faithful to that trust.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I stretch hands across the state of Pennsylvania from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh in regret on the loss of a public citizen to the state of Pennsylvania,, of such inestimable worth and courage, pains-taking, hard working, conscientious man as Charles McBride. It has been my pleasure and my duty to serve in this House continuously for ten sessions. In all that time I served under various Chairmen of the Appropriations Committee, and at no time in the history of those ten sessions of service have I met a more affable, more conscientious and more hard working chairman of any committee than I have in the present Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

The state sustains a distinct loss in one of its best servants, but the loss of the state is the gain to the county of Allegheny in securing the valuable services of such a man as Charles McBride. Therefore, Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentleman of the House, it is with sincere regret that I see the passing of a man of such sterling worth from the legislative halls in Harrisburg. It has been my pleasure, as I say, to work hand in hand with him, and I know his sterling worth, I know of his goods deeds, and any time any member of this House had occasion to go into the office of the Appropriations Committee, he was always made welcome and made to feel at home. Every man and woman that had to go in there on any business was taken care of and sent away with a smile.

I want to congratulate Mr. McBride upon his appointment to a higher office and I want to express the hope that the Indian summer of his life may be long, and when the frosts of many winters have touched his hair with grey, when he sits down smokes his pipe in contentment and peace, may he treasure for the rest of his life the memories of friendships that he has made in the House of Representatives, which are of pure gold, without tarnish.

QUESTION OF PERCONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we have heard from the county of Allegheny, we have heard from the County of Philadelphia, and I merely rise to make it unanimous by expressing the appreciation and the regard of the rural members for Mr. McBride.

We do not call him "Mister," we call him "Charlie," and we have found him to be a straight and honorable man. I regret very much to lose him from our membership, and we extend to him our cordial best wishes, and our well wishes will follow him in his new position.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentlemen, under the questions of personal privilege, will be spread upon the Journal.

HONORABLE WILLIAM F. STADTLANDER APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS.

The SPEAKER. Inasmuch as this resignation causes a vacancy in the chairmanship of the Appropriations Committee, the Chair is obliged to appoint one in the meantime, and therefore appoints his colleague, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stadtlander, as chairman of the Appropriations Committee for the interim.

ENDORSEMENT BY ALLEGHENY COUNTY DELEGATION.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, having heard the announcement from the Chair that the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Stadtlander, has been appointed to succeed Mr. McBride, I therefore have the honor, Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the Allegheny County Delegation, to voice the sentiment of the twenty-seven members of the Allegheny County delegation, to present the following endorsement of the appointment which you have already made.

House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa. April 13, 1927.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1927 — 127th of the General Assembly

Vol. 10 — HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 14, 1927. — No. 41

SENATE.

THURSDAY, April 14, 1927.

The Senate met at 1 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Samuel W. Salus) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. W. Hall, offered the following prayer:

We have come to the close of this session. There is a peculiar sadness in our hearts. We wonder whether we have done the right thing or not during these past few weeks; but we leave it with Thee. Our hearts are right. Our heads may have gone astray; but we know this,—that we have done our very best, and we worked according to our honest convictions.

So we pray Thee to-night, at the opening of this session, that Thy blessing may rest on this body. We thank Thee for these men and for their courtesies and all that they have done for us during these last few weeks.

May Thy blessing rest upon these employes in this Senate,—they who have worked so faithfully and graciously and who have always been ready to listen; may Thy blessing rest upon them.

Bless the Governor and his cabinet, and all in authority. And help us, as we leave here, to remember that some of us may never, never return,—some of us may go the way of all the earth, we cannot tell; but we are going to trust Thee, we are going to have our faith in God and we are going to believe in Thee.

May the blessing of the Lord rest upon everyone here; and those who may not return to this body—may the blessing of God be upon their hearts. We ask in Thy great name. Amen.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1384, (House Bill No. 496), entitled:

An Act authorizing judges imposing sentences on persons convicted of crime to impose an additional sentence to work on the highways in the Commonwealth

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BELL. Mr. President, with reference to this bill there has been handed me, by Representative Henderson, of Fayette County, a letter written to him by a County Commissioner; and I present it at this time:

Commissioners Office, Fayette County,
Uniontown, Pa., March 5, 1927.

Hon. Jos. B. Henderson,
House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: The Fayette County Commissioners have established and are maintaining and operating the only Prison Camp in the State of Pennsylvania for the purpose of road construction. This Camp was placed in operation June 7, 1926, and from forty to sixty prisoners have been quartered there since that time.

About one mile of improved road has been completed, grading for an additional three quarters of a mile is in such shape that very little remains to be done in order to prepare the subbase. Sufficient stone has been quarried throughout the winter months to build an additional three miles of road.

When the idea of establishing this camp was first conceived, the economic value of the construction was not thought of. It was originally intended for the purpose of relieving the congestion in the County Jail which in itself was constructed to take care of only approximately ninety prisoners and which at the time this camp was constructed was housing one hundred eighty-four prisoners. But after work had proceeded for a period of two or three months, it was found that the portion of construction completed by the prisoners was done at a considerable less cost to the County than had a Contract been awarded.

The moral effect on the prisoners has been shown to be worthy the cost of the entire effort. At the expiration of their sentence they are in a better physical condition to get work and in a better frame of mind to execute it than had they been confined in the Bull Pen with nothing on their minds except the generation of additional criminal offenses.

As near as can be ascertained, ninety-five per cent of the inmates of this Construction Camp have at the expiration of their sentences secured outside work.

The establishment of this camp has also greatly reduced the cost of maintaining prisoners in the Allegheny County Work House. During the year 1926, this decrease amounts to ten thousand dollars.

If the Bill you sponsor becomes a law, it will not only make it compulsory for able bodied prisoners to help maintain themselves but it will also create a condition whereby they help to maintain those who are physically unfit.

The three Common Pleas Judges of Fayette County approve this Bill and should you be successful in securing its passage, I am satisfied you will have created a great beneficial condition in Fayette County.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE W. HIBBS.
County Commissioner.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I wish to make a statement to the Senate of Pennsylvania in reference to the counties west of the Allegheny Mountains that will not make provisions for their prisoners to be confined in their jails, on penal offenses, but will send them to the Allegheny County Workhouse.

The Allegheny County Workhouse was organized in 1872, and my brother has been the superintendent in that institution for over eighteen years. In that period he spent over two millions of dollars to improve it,—provide for the prisoners and increase the land acreage from one hundred and forty acres to over seven hundred acres.

Those two millions of dollars come from annual appropriations. They tore the inside out of the institution. They put glazed brick in the ceilings and in the walls. That took the place of plaster. They put down concrete floors, and laid rugs—rag-carpet rugs, which they made themselves—on the floors. They put in a toilet and washstand, in each room. And instead of a board, hinged on the side, on which the inmate would lie at night, they gave them each a bed with springs and a mattress, and covering to protect them.

The imposition on the part of the counties west of the Allegheny Mountains has got to such a point that the workhouse cannot contain the prisoners. We will not go into the question of their sending ordinary prisoners, but into the sending of felons convicted of manslaughter, second-degree murder, arson—they are committed to the Allegheny County Workhouse and are kept there, the Fayette County prisoners, for instance, at a cost of ten thousand dollars less than they can be kept in Fayette County. And Fayette County is not any different from Washington County or Beaver County or Mercer County or Butler County of Westmoreland County or any other county in the western part of the State that sent prisoners in there at so much per diem.

The workhouse was instituted under the Charter of 1872, and was known as the Allegheny County Workhouse and Inebriate Asylum. The inebriates in those days were liquor inebriates; today they are of all kinds—morphine addicts, heorin addicts, cocaine fiends and others, and the workhouse is crowded. And I say to Western Pennsylvania,—to each and every one of the counties out there— if they are going to put out their prisoners like the southern prisoners are put out, in tar factories, turpentine factories, on railroads, at so much per diem, I want to explain to you that when my brother went to the Allegheny County Workhouse there were prisoners hired out on farms and he immediately abolished that; he immediately came to the proposition that his employes were on twelve hours per day, and he immediately followed the State law and the United States law and put them on eight hours per day; and in order to be distinctly understood, I do not object to what they do in Fayette County, Washington County, Beaver County, Butler, Westmoreland or any other county in Pennsylvania, but I am going to oppose favorable action on this bill for the reason that Pennsylvania is not going to put prisoners out on the highways nor hire them out on farms.

Over five hundred and sixty acres,—from one hundred and forty acres to over seven hundred acres—were added in Allegheny County to keep the men employed, and every particle of food that they eat comes from those farms.

I spoke to the Senator, and he admitted that to take advantage of the law and commit these prisoners to the Workhouse of Allegheny County,—why do they not commit them to the Western Penitentiary, and give us an opportunity to take care of our own prisoners? We spend the money and they get the benefit.

Therefore, I appeal to the members of this Senate to abolish the hiring out of prisoners on private farms or on highways or the using them upon their own highways. It is bad enough to be committed to prison, but it is worse to be put on the highways, with armed guards to watch them so they will not escape. Those things belong not to Pennsylvania, and should not be tolerated or considered.

The sponsors of this bill admit it is better for the prisoners to be out of the cells, but they deny there is any necessity to spend money of their own to buy farmlands and put the prisoners out to work those farmlands and help raise products that would provide food for those prisoners.

I am sincere in this matter, because I have been deeply interested. I objected to my brother's taking this position eighteen years ago, but he took it nevertheless; and he has achieved something that had not been achieved in this State in all its previous history. He took a shell of a building, and not a penny went on the outside of it. His record stands as the highest record in this State under the Welfare Department,—the highest record of any penal institution in this State under the Labor Organization, where there are examiners to visit every one of these penal institutions. It is the highest not only in this State but in the United States and in Canada. And if you are going to make subjects out of some unfortunates, to be looked down and frowned upon and branded by hiring them out like they hire them out in the southern States, then Pennsylvania does not occupy the position it should occupy. The counties should provide proper facilities to have the prisoners occupied.

In the Workhouse of Allegheny County they manufacture rugs—rag-carpet rugs, manufacture brushes, manufacture willow-ware, paper-mache ware, porch furniture,—they do things to keep them occupied, keep them outside. And they are all ready to do that, to send their prisoners to the Workhouse of Allegheny County; because they will not spend their own money. And it is admitted that Fayette County saves ten thousand dollars a year. Why does not Fayette County spend a few million dollars and erect buildings and acquire land for prison-farms, and not commit their prisoners to Allegheny County? I appeal to the members of this Senate to vote this bill down.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I fully agree with Senator Leslie in everything he said. I think it would be a wrong principle to take prisoners out of the workhouses and have them take the positions of good, honest citizens who are willing to do this work and give a good honest day's work.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I want to ask if this is the bill increasing the weight of trucks and their contents to 36,000 pounds?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it is not. That has been taken up and placed in another bill known as the Armstrong Bill, and in this bill the weight is limited to 26,000 pounds. There is no new weight in this bill.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr President, it does not increase the weight allowed in the old statute?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it does not. Senate Bill No. 1403 does that.

Shall the bill pass finally?
